FOR GROWN-UPS

Before you start

A few tips for parents and teachers.

This pack goes with the stories of the prophets. Before each activity, tell your child the story it comes from, or read it together from Qalb's Bedtime Stories or Stories of the Prophets, both free at remindheart.com.

Print one page at a time, or the whole pack. Every page works in black and white. The answers are at the back.

The pictures show the places and moments in each story. They never show the prophets themselves, out of respect.

When they finish, fill in the certificate on the last activity page, and make dua for them!
